

FTC / Affiliate Disclaimer

Last updated July 5th, 2023

At DIY Darling, we aim to provide total transparency when it comes to how we make money, what products we choose to promote, and ultimately, provide the best tips and resources for creators looking to design their dream life on a dime.

DIY Darling provides the vast majority of our content free of charge. We also may use affiliate links to help earn some income to cover our website development costs.

A portion of our revenue is earned through affiliate links. When someone clicks on an affiliate link and makes a purchase, we may receive a commission. Your support in this way helps us invest in producing the best content that we can.

We also include display advertisements on some of our posts and pages. These advertisements may generate website income based on impressions.

Rest assured, we take our time to carefully study the products and services that we review and recommend. Additionally, our affiliate links never result in buyers paying more for a product. The price of any product or service that you purchase after clicking affiliate links would be the same as what you would normally pay. The store or seller pays the affiliate commission, not you, the buyer. In fact, in many cases, buyers making a purchase through links on DIY Darling may receive a discount or promotional deal from our affiliate partner, resulting in a lower priced product than would normally be offered to the general public through the promotional partner's site.
